

11TH ANNUAL

BUDDY WALK OF THE BERKSHIRES

Hosted by Berkshire County Arc and the Berkshire County Arc Down Syndrome Family Group, this one mile walk starts and ends at Craneville Elementary School where there will be a family picnic, a raffle, live music and other fun activities.

The Walk will be held rain or shine!

The goal of the walk, which is affiliated with the National Down Syndrome Society, is to promote awareness and inclusion of people with Down Syndrome and to fundraise for those with Down Syndrome who reside in Berkshire County.

The Berkshire County Arc Down Syndrome Family Group supports 40 families living in Berkshire County who have a family member with Down Syndrome. All proceeds from the Buddy Walk will help to provide services and support for children, adults and families of people with Down Syndrome living in Berkshire County.
